

Progress against Malaria: Developments on the Horizon

Monday, 24 September 2007

The Johns Hopkins University Bloomberg School of Public Health and the New York Academy of Sciences are proud to present a one-day conference on Malaria on October 24, 2007 at the New York Academy of Sciences, 7 World Trade Center, New York, NY. This meeting will be Africa-centric, with a focus on changes and new directions in Malaria research. A particular highlight of the symposium will be a panel discussion where the Malaria in Macha (MIAM) site in rural Zambia will be used as a model site to demonstrate what can be learnt from a rural setting.
